

NON-PAPER

At their meetings with the Troika in Vienna on 30 August, both parties reiterated their commitments regarding the security situation.

Against the backdrop of the ongoing status talks, the Belgrade and Pristina delegations reaffirmed their determination to refrain from any activities or statements that might jeopardize the security situation. Both delegations expressed their conviction that violence, provocation or intimidation are inadmissible and reaffirmed their commitment to exercise vigilance in this regard and observe strict restraint.

These mutual commitments are important statements of intention. They are key indicators that the parties are prepared to pursue negotiations and to build with the international community a peaceful future for the region.

Read to both delegations on 30 August and confirmed by them in the presence of all members of the Troika.
